Abstrak Abstract	This study was conducted to identify the acceptability of Quick score culture diversity module among students and polytechnic lecturers. This research aims to achieve the objective of ensuring that the two-way learning between educators and students in the classroom is enhanced. Also, to make the outcome-based education teaching method more interesting. This is because, students do not always prepare before taking the exam. Also, students do not make preparations before entering the classroom. We have conducted this research on lecturers and polytechnic students studying the subject of cultural diversity. The objective of our study was to study student and lecturer acceptance of the quick score culture diversity module.
